Hearing of demurrer continued to Nov. 4. Matter of the estate of A. Curry. F. D. Turner and H. P. Rice appointed administrators; S. C. Wright, O. P. Willis and Evan Davis appointed appraisers, and order of notice to creditors made. Lucy Ann Cuppet vs. Daniel Cuppet. Continued to Nov. 4. Estate and guardianship of the Willford minors. Hearing of petition on confirmation of sale of real estate set for Saturday, Nov. 15. Estate of Alice Warren, deceased. Hearing of petition in matter of final settlement set for Saturday, Nov. 15. Estate of Edward Cushing, deceased. Order made for publication of notice to creditors and order setting aside personal and family allowances. Estate of Caroline A. Frisbie, deceased. Decree of settlement and final distribution. Court adjourned to Nov. 4.

THE TEST CASE. Involving the validity of the old Territorial Sunday law prohibiting gaming (State vs. Winston) will come up for trial before Justice Witherell to-day. (We were mistaken in making the statement a day or two since that Winston's and Ogden's cases would be tried together. Ogden's case comes on to-morrow.) On Sunday all the gaming saloons were closed, their proprietors being unwilling to incur the risk of further arrests until these cases should be decided, one way or another. Somehow, it seems to us that these gambling saloons—such a popular and commodious and orderly a place of resort as Winston's, in particular, are safety valves which it were unwise to close down too suddenly. This view of the case forced itself upon all careful observers on Sunday last. It was by far the most disorderly day we have seen in the place in a good while. As we once before said, the most harmless thing which the hangers on to gambling saloons do is to gamble. If they can't find a game to play at they get drunk and fight and loaf about the streets and leer at the ladies and make nuisances of themselves generally. They won't go to church nor yet to Sunday school; and if they did, they would put up a job on the contribution box and double team on the catechism. If the sports can keep this hoodlum element amused and comparatively harmless, better let them do so.

THE BASE BALL MATCH between the Olympics of Carson and the Mutuals of Virginia came off on Sunday at the Carson course and the Virginia boys got away with it after a handsome struggle by our fellows. Here is the score as furnished us by Eugene Pierce of the Olympics:

POLICE COURT.—Judge Witherell held quite an interesting seance, yesterday. First came a man who asked to be immortalized under the somewhat overworked name of John Doe. He had been drunk and had given way to the strange hallucination that himself was a street sprinkler. His Honor, being a Justice of the Peace, fined him $15, which he rustled round and got and antied. Neil Morrison, d. d., got muled in the usual first time fee, paid it and walked off on his ear. Fred Otto and Daniel Mogarrigle got into a fight down by Philo Rice's old corner and were locked up until yesterday morning when they were confronted with Judge Witherell who socked it to 'em to the tune of $30 apiece. They put up, we believe. We don't know about Daniel, but Fred Otto, if he didn't.

U. S. CIRCUIT COURT met yesterday and adjourned for the term. The next term begins on the first Monday in December—Judges Sawyer and Hillyer presiding.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.—The County Commissioners held their regular monthly meeting yesterday and allowed the following bills; James Gardner, killing wild cat $2. John Q. Moore, board, $61. J. P. Savage, keeping pauper, $31. N. Sodeberg, board, $35. N. Sodeberg, portage, $30. L. A. Herick, medical services, $31. Mason & Chamberlin, merchandise, $45.35. Mrs. P. Brannan, board, $45. Olcovich Bros. merchandise, $18. J. M. Benton, horse hire, $8. John P. Meder, meat, $16. F. H. Craven, wood, $123; S. T. Swift, fees, $287.75. S. D. King, fees, $147. C. A. Witherell, fees, $27. E. D. Judd & Co., merchandise, $35. H. S. Mason, stationery, $35. Joseph Rosenstock, merchandise, $28. A. W. Pray, lumber, $141. Rice & Peters, insurance, $45. T. J. Edwards, cash advanced, $2. B. H. Meder, furniture, $31. E. B. Rail, merchandise, $12. G. W. Kitzmeyer, mattress for jail, $4. E. D. Judd & Co., merchandise, 2. B. H. Meder, road work, $50. Henry Lebo, work on road, $10. A. W. Pray, lumber, $24. George W. White, lumber, $27. W. D. Torreyson, blacksmithing, $23; W. D. Torreyson, six spanners Warren Engine Co., $12. Mason & Chamberlin, merchandise, $8. B. H. Meder, stove, $29. Bottsford & Anderson, work, Warren Engine Co., $200. William Elliott, work Curry Engine House, $180.

THE COUNTY BOARD passed an order yesterday to give $100 per quarter, rent, for the western subdivision of the Patterson stone block—alongside of David & Winnie's stable—as a housing place for the S. T. Swift, steamer. They also appropriated $75 toward putting the house in order. This arrangement don't find much enthusiastic favor with the members of the company. They look at the value and efficiency of their machine and think that she don't get a fair consideration by being held subject to these rather cheap appropriations—that she is not put on a full, square footing with the other machines, in short. Perhaps they are the least bit sensitive and impatient; but we think that there can be no better piece of economy displayed by the Board than to give this very valuable and effective machine the most generous treatment the county's finances will admit of.

THE GRAND JURY for Ormsby county was impaneled yesterday. Following are the names of officers and members of that body: Henry R. Mighels, foreman; E. T. Lee; John Hansen; C. F. Colton; G. W. G. Ferris; W. M. Little; Geo. Tully; Jacob Klein; John A. Lovejoy; Warren Wasson; A. D. Treadway; William Musgrove; Thos. Beer; J. E. Woods; M. B. Dow; Evan David; and R. R. Parkinson, Secretary. The Grand Jury found a true bill of indictment for the crime of highway robbery against Tracy, Burke and Slattery, the three men who are charged with the robbery of Chedie's man Rodini. They adjourned until 2 o'clock on Saturday Nov. 15.

OWEN FERGUSON who killed an attendant in the Lincoln County Hospital, has not exactly been granted a new trial; but yesterday upon presentation of his grounds of error by Mr. Counsellor Ellis the Court requested the Attorney General to come into Court to-day and confess error—which means that a new hearing of the case will be granted. When Ferguson received his sentence he looked very pale and nervous, so 'tis said, but quietly remarked that he never should be hanged. Things begin to look as if he foretold a fact when he muttered that brief response.

THE BROTHERS OLCOVICH have been laying in a splendid assortment of seasonal goods. Their shoes and boots for women's wear; their laces and toilet jewelry; their prints and cold weather goods; their shawls and over garments for ladies and little people; and their gentlemen's hem stitch handkerchiefs done up with an initial letter embroidered thereon—these are some of the very attractive things which they are displaying just now. Go and look at 'em.

MINT BUSINESS.—The Superintendent of the Carson Mint, received, yesterday, one ton and one pound of mixed bullion gold and silver. The gold in the bullion will be parted, and put into coin. The silver will be refined and put into "fine" silver bars, and returned to depositors for deposits received. On the same day seven hundred and twenty-six ounces of gold were received from Virginia City, Nevada, sent to the Mint for coinage.

HON. JAMES F. LEWIS has been confined to his house in Virginia City during the past three weeks with a fever. Mr. Rice, who went up to see him on Sunday reports him so far convalescent as to threaten to go into court to try a case. Glad to know he is doing so well; but he'd better go slow till he gains more strength.

PRESIDENT JOHN G. FOX of the Columbus Toll Road Company has gone out upon the line of that road. When he comes back we shall know something definite about the business and progress of the same.

THE DANBURY NEWS Almanac and Nast's Almanac for 1874 can be had of John G. Fox to whom we are indebted for a copy of each of the same.

ATTENTION is called to Counsellor Healy's Law card. He makes a specialty of land matters.

In Carson City, November 2, 1873, by the Rev. A. N. Fisher, John Fagley to Mrs. Ollie Warren, both of this place.

THE MINT is doing a land office business these days. So great is the pressure upon its facilities that Mr. Superintendent Hetrick has lately been obliged to keep the institution under full headway, night and day, Sundays and all. Last Sunday the smoke from the big chimney announced the busy times within. The occasion for all this unwonted activity is the augmented production of bullion and the new demands made for gold and silver coinage by the recent impulse toward a resumption of coin payments. This double activity of the Mint, if sustained for any considerable length of time (as it seems likely to) will necessitate an increase of the working force and, of course, a more liberal appropriation by Congress. If our mint affairs are at all well handled in Washington next Winter the institution will be put upon the generous basis to which it is so justly entitled.

JOHN ROSSER'S STEAL was opened to the gaze of an admiring world yesterday morning. The display of meats was very fine. The artists under whose special supervision the meats were arranged and decorated were Johnny Meder and Irish Mike. For coin or marbles this is the finest butcher stall anywhere this side of San Francisco—and it can't be beat, for arrangements, at the Bay.

An express wagon came near running over a boy who was playing at ball tossing in the middle of Carson street yesterday. We are glad he didn't get hurt, but if this narrow escape will frighten him and other boys from this nuisance of playing ball in the street we shall stand on our venerable head for joy.

THE V. & T. people have received enough steel rails to re-lay their road a distance of two miles. The reconstruction will begin at the upper end.
